SUNDAY REFLECTION:

As Christians, we need to place our entire lives into the hands of Jesus. It is true that we should use our initiative, our gifts, and our strength. But we should do this in keeping with our oneness in Jesus.

After all, he was the one who was crucified for our sins, who showed us ultimate leadership.
That leadership is born from humility, his power is born from lowliness. Were we to enter into this same frame of mind, and to make it our life's work to be followers of Christ, then we would be living as true and faithful Christians.

This is our life's work. We are his sheep. He sustains us, he leads us to nourishment and peace, and out of harm. Let us, then pray to Christ for the gift of his discipleship, that we may love and be loved, follow and lead, be his sheep and being others into his fold.

*Today, the Fourth Sunday of Easter, is commonly known as 'Good Shepherd Sunday' (because the Gospel is taken from Jesus' teaching in chapter 10 of John's Gospel about himself as the Good Shepherd).
But it is also known as 'Vocation Sunday' because on this day we pray especially that more may answer the call to serve the Church in a special way (as did Paul and Barnabus), particularly as pastors and religious.*

(taken from a Catholic Website)

May God bless all women on this special day and may His love surround you. A mother's love is a beautiful reflection of God's love.

May you find peace and joy as you celebrate this special day.

We honor and remember and celebrate the mothers in our lives, and for those who are not here with us on this special day.

*We want to extend our gratitude to the Knights of Columbus for providing the Carnations for all the special women in our
